Goals for the Strategic Planning Session:

- To engage members of the LC3 Collaborative to develop a strategic plan for the next 3 years
- To confirm the LC3 Collaborative’s Purpose and Collective Objectives
- To review relevant data to inform the LC3 Collaborative
- Prioritize critical shifts to improve behavioural health outcomes in the community
- To identify potential services and/or programs to advance Behavioural Health in the community

Agenda for the Session:

- 11:30 am Welcome and Introduction to the LC3 Collaborative Strategic Planning Session
- 11:40 am Confirmation of the Purpose and Collective Objectives of the LC3 Collaborative
- Collaborative Purpose: We aspire to build an “Ideal Behavioral Health System” model in New Mexico that facilitates a community collaborative that is inclusive, organized, centered on the individual & family, and is committed to providing the best services for people in our communities.
 - LC3 Collective Objectives:
 - Set shared regional behavioral health priorities for restoring system disruptions that resulted from the 2013 behavioral health shutdown.
 - Increase regional training capacity and evidence-based practices.
 - Develop 3 new services and programs that fill service continuum gaps.
- Question: What would you keep, drop, or add?
- 12:00 pm Key Data to Inform our Collective Work
- Please review the backgrounder for the LC3 Collaborative Planning Context and Data
- Question: What do we have to pay attention to? What data is most relevant to the strategic planning process? What is slipping through the cracks?
- 12:20 pm Defining the Critical shifts needed to achieve the LC3 Collaborative Purpose

A critical shift is simple to define and very powerful as a strategy tool. A good shift is a statement of two things:

Current State	Future State (3 years from now)
Something that isn't working right now	What it should look like in the future
